Module 4: Coma and Convulsion: Facilitator Instructions for PowerPoint Presentation

1. Preparation
   a. Review learning objectives for this module
      i. Accurately assess consciousness using the AVPU coma scale.
      ii. Recognize a child in coma.
      iii. Recognize a child having a convulsion.
      iv. Determine amount and type of fluid to treat low blood sugar.
      v. Demonstrate how to use a glucometer
      vi. Understand when to give anticonvulsants.
      vii. Choose the appropriate anticonvulsant and dose to treat a child having a convulsion.
      viii. Understand how to give medications rectally.
   b. Review Participant manual course content for this module
   c. Review PowerPoint presentation
   d. Check equipment

2. Equipment
   a. EITHER
      i. Laptop
      ii. LCD projector
   b. OR
      i. Laminated cards
   c. Infant manikin and glucometer with strips for glucometer demonstration

3. General principles
   a. If the course is being given as separate modules over several weeks (rather than as a continuous course over several days), begin with the review slides from previous modules 1, 2 and 3.
   b. Review learning objectives carefully.
   c. Make the presentation interactive.
   d. Leave time for questions.